Silvus Technologies wins TV Technology Best of Show Award at NAB 2014

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA -- April 13, 2014 -- StreamCaster 3822, manufactured by Silvus Technologies, is the recipient of one of the Broadcast Industry's most prestigious technology honors, NewBay Media's Best of Show Award, presented at the 2014 NAB Show in Las Vegas by TV Technology magazine.

NewBay Media's Best of Show Awards are evaluated by a panel of engineers and industry experts, and are selected based on innovation, feature set, cost efficiency and performance in serving the industry.

The winners will be featured in TV Technology, read by thousands of broadcast professionals in the United States, around the world and online. TV Technology is the industry's leading magazine for technology news and reviews and is celebrating its 30th year covering the television industry.

Only a small number of products were chosen for NewBay Media's Best of Show Award from among hundreds of new products in competition.

Touting COFDM modulation, true 2x2 MIMO, and mesh networking capability, SC3822 is the latest addition to the StreamCaster family. Smaller, lighter, and with lower power consumption, SC3822 is ideal for portable applications such as cameraback/backpack ENG, director's video assist, and live POV sports.

All StreamCaster radios feature Silvus' MN-MIMO (Mobile Networked MIMO) waveform, providing unprecedented throughput, range, and robustness, especially in challenging scenarios involving mobility, non-line-of-sight (NLOS) operation, and interference. StreamCaster radios join together to form a self-healing, self-healing mesh network, providing bi-directional IP and video connectivity without relying on public cell phone networks.

"We are enormously proud of our Best of Show recipients," says NewBay Media Broadcast & Video Group Vice President & Group Publisher Eric Trabb. "Recognition with an award at the NAB Show from NewBay Media's Broadcast & Video Group is a strong vote of confidence and admiration from our leading industry publications."
